ChatGPT's Valentine's Day poem for

Goa

Beneath the sun, the sand is warm
On Goa's beaches, life is calm
Palm trees sway, and waves crash slow
In this paradise, I'll let my worries go

Golden sunsets paint the sky
Fishermen cast their nets and sigh
Coconut groves and spice plantations
This land of beauty, my heart's sensation

Swaying hips and music loud
In Goa, life is one big crowd
Carnival colors, joy surrounds
This land of love, my feet are bound

Goa's history, culture, and soul
Forever in my heart, a special role
With every visit, I'm captured whole
In this gem of India, I find my goal.
