

ChatGPT's Valentine's Day poem for

Seoul

In Seoul, the city lights aglow
A metropolis that's always on the go
With history and culture to show
A vibrant city that's hard to outdo

The streets are alive with energy
A melting pot of tradition and modernity
Where ancient temples and skyscrapers be
A city that's both old and new to see

From the bustling markets to the tranquil parks
Seoul is a city that never grows dark
With endless activities and sights to embark
A destination that truly leaves a mark

From the Gyeongbokgung Palace to Namsan Tower
Seoul is a city that never loses its power
A place where the past and present cower
A city that's forever in the hour.
