

ChatGPT's Valentine's Day poem for

Tapei

Taipei, city of night markets bright,
Vendors sell their wares with all their might,
From street food to trinkets, so much to see,
A bustling metropolis, alive and free.

Skyscrapers reach for the sky so high,
The Taipei 101, a sight to spy,
A symbol of the city's modern might,
A beacon in the darkness, shining bright.

Temples ancient, yet revered with care,
A glimpse of Taiwan's rich cultural flair,
Longshan, with its incense, a soothing scent,
A place for peace and reflection, well spent.

Taipei, city of contrasts and charm,
A taste of tradition, yet with a modern arm,
A destination for all, to explore and find,
A city of wonder, one of a kind.
