

ChatGPT's Valentine's Day poem for Tokyo

Tokyo, city of neon and speed
Where technology and tradition meet
Skyscrapers reach for the sky
While shrines and temples quietly lie

The streets bustle with energy
A never-ending symphony
Of people and cars, in perfect harmony
A city that's both old and new, it's a rarity

From Shinjuku to Shibuya
The bright lights never fail to awe ya
The Tokyo Tower stands tall
A beacon of progress, standing tall

Sushi, ramen, and tempura too
The food is a delicacy, there's so much to chew
Mount Fuji in the distance, a sight to behold
Tokyo, a city that never gets old.
